

Film Screening!

In the 2nd week of February 2016, the Social Studies 11 class will be watching the 2008 film "Passchendaele" by Paul Gross. The film is rated 14A for coarse language, violence, as well as gory and sexually suggestive scenes.

This film is unique in its examination of the Canadian perspective and influence in the First World War. It confronts the attitudes and perspectives on the home front, as well as the horrors of trench warfare during WWI.

Due to the sensitive subject matter, please note that if you wish to have your student take part in the alternative research activity to sign below, or if you have any questions you can reach me at lzanon@sd61.bc.ca.
