

Name : _____

The Nature of Warfare in WW1 Assignment

Due Date: Friday February 12

Option 1 – The Western Front: World War 1 saw the nature of warfare change dramatically from earlier conflicts and also saw Canadian troops create a reputation for themselves and their nation that would change how Canada was regarded around the world.

Please choose one of the following methods to express your understanding of the content.

Methods:

- Letters from the front home
- Articles from a war correspondent
- Video recording of a conversation from the front
- A cartoon
- A diorama or Mind Map
- An option not listed above (see Ms. Zanon for confirmation)

Content:

- The events (battles, Conversations, heroic acts, etc)
- Characters (soldiers, Generals, Lieutenant's,)
- Technologies (weapons, surveillance, etc)
- Short term consequences (# of dead in battle, scaring the land, etc)
- Long term consequences (treaties, monuments, autonomy, etc)

Evaluation Criteria and Assessment:

| | | |
|-------------------------------------|-----------|-----|
| Uses at least 12 WWI specific terms | 1 marks = | /12 |
| Explains each term thoroughly (12) | 2 marks = | /24 |
| Touches on each content area (5) | 1 mark = | /5 |
| Creative and Expressive | 4 marks = | /4 |

TOTAL = /45

Name : _____

The Nature of Warfare in WW1 Assignment

Due Date: Friday February 12

Option 2 – The home front: On the home front we saw women expand their independence by working in men’s traditional work. We also saw the government implement new policies that would effect Canadian families for generations.

Please choose one of the following methods to express your understanding of the content.

Methods:

- Letters from home to the front
- Articles from a regional newspaper
- Video recording of a conversation from parliament
- A cartoon
- A diorama or Mind Map
- An option not listed above (see Ms. Zanon for confirmation)

Content:

- The events (War Measures Act, mobilizing forces, training, etc)
- Characters (Prime Minister Borden, women, men at home, etc)
- Social Impacts (Propaganda, Victory Bonds, Rationing, Wages)
- Short term consequences (scarcity of goods, increase in prices, etc)
- Long term consequences (income tax, women’s rights, etc)

Evaluation Criteria and Assessment:

| | | |
|-------------------------------------|-----------|-----|
| Uses at least 12 WWI specific terms | 1 marks = | /12 |
| Explains each term thoroughly (12) | 2 marks = | /24 |
| Touches on each content area (5) | 1 mark = | /5 |
| Creative and Expressive | 4 marks = | /4 |

TOTAL = /45

